Hello Loyal Locals Club Members,

Welcome to Autumn! What an abundance of riches I have for you this quarter. Sangiovese, Zinfandel, Petite Syrah, Pinot Noir, Cabernet and even a much sought after Sagrantino. As our thoughts turn to slightly heavier foods and our summer gardens are being planted with winter vegetables its time to plan those cozy fall dinners and TV dinner evenings. Toward the end of this email under the recipe link is Eric Luce's perfect pairing suggestion for his 2014 Eric Ross "Nicks Block" Pinot Noir for you to try.

Harvest is in full swing as I write this today. A bit of surprising early rain washed out a few events locally and sent the winemakers scurrying into their vineyards to pick and or protect their valuable fruit. The weather is always a reminder that this is still an agricultural community, and at the end of the day that the fruit is the all important ingredient for making a great wine. Luckily we are surrounded by some of the best vineyards around as evidenced by two recent gold medal wins for our wines at the 2018 Sonoma County Harvest Fair. Keep in mind that that our Rhone Blends, Rosé and Pinot Noir are excellent wines to pair with your Thanksgiving menu's. If you need tips of the trade drop us a line and tell us what you are planning on cooking and our resident experts will suggest exactly what wine to serve.

There are tasting notes on each of the wines in your club here localstastingroom.com/tasting\_notes/ and we would love to chat with you about your favorites so please stay in touch with us. If you have not already subscribed to our Locals Tasting Room YouTube channel and watched Patricks Tasting Tuesday videos you can do so here www.youtube.com/channel/UC6huOUqwmbwfJ7R1AVOJIDw

As harvest activity continues to bustle around us here in Geyserville we are gearing up for Food and Wine Affair on November 3rd and

The air is crisp and clear, the whole area smells of fermenting grapes and anticipation and excitement for the 2018 vintage is in the air.
