Hello to all my Trust Carolyn Club members,

Spring has sprung and with it a sense of renewal. Could there finally be light at the end of this pandemic tunnel? It feels like maybe we will all be able to get together and toast to a better future soon. I'm extremely excited to regain the freedom to have a glass of wine with friends, enjoy a BBQ, listen to some live music, and generally rejoin the real world.

What better way to celebrate than with a bottle of one of my current favorites from our Locals lineup? I have some brand-new spring releases for you to enjoy and some old favorites to tempt you with. Crisp springy Rosés, elegant complex Sauvignon Blancs and blends, a killer Napa Cabernet and an extra yummy one from the Alexander Valley, and esoteric Sagrantino and a Sangiovese blend and that is just the beginning.

In this shipment, we also introduce you to Drive Wines, our latest winery addition to the Locals lineup. The meticulously crafted wines hail from the well-respected Puccioni Ranch. Located in Dry Creek Valley, in northern Sonoma County, Puccioni Ranch is farmed by 4th generation owner, Glenn Proctor. Zinfandel has been grown continuously at Puccioni since 1904. Like many historic Sonoma County vineyards, the ranch survived prohibition by selling grapes to home winemakers, as well as from the Quan Vineyard which is in the Carneros region of Sonoma County. Carneros straddles Napa Valley and Sonoma County and draws influences from the San Pablo Bay and the Pacific Ocean.

If you need some food pairing suggestions or want to chat about some of my favorites right now you can do so here <http://drift.me/carolynlewis>.

All of your club wines are listed below, and we love to hear what you think of our selections so don't hesitate to drop us a note. Tasting notes on each wine can be found here <https://localstastingroom.com/club-tasting-notes/>.

Your 45-day discount runs through June 30, 2021, is for new orders only, and excludes Alaska, Canada, and Hawaii.

I'm sure by now you have all received several emails from us regarding our FREE shipping offer. Consider taking advantage of this and stocking up on some of your favorite Locals wines.

Just remember,

You can cut all the flowers, but you cannot keep spring from coming

Cheers,
Carolyn
