Hello to all my Loyal Locals,

Are you all feeling ready for the Autumnal Equinox and the first day of fall? This year, autumn starts on September 22nd and marks the turning point when darkness begins to win out over daylight. Essentially, our hours of daylight—the time each day between sunrise and sunset — have been growing slightly shorter each day since the summer solstice in June, which is the longest day of the year. When this happens, I tend to shift my wine drinking habits, focusing a bit more on reds. I have two brand new releases to tempt you with this quarter.

Those of you who've had the chance to come in and taste with us know that Grenache is one of our favorite grapes. You may also have noticed our fondness for blends. They show a winemaker's talent and personal palate. When Grenache is in a blend, something magical happens. There is a lush richness and delicious ripeness that takes hold. They are crowd-pleasers. Speaking of fan favorites, two of these blends are in your Locals Choice selection for September to enjoy, compare, and contrast...and did I mention enjoy?

The 2018 Eric Ross "Goût de la Vigne" is a classic Southern Rhône-style blend of 90% Grenache and 10% Syrah. Vintner Eric Luse (There is no Ross), picks the best of his Silverlight estate vineyard and truly gives us the "Flavor of the Vine." Elegant, complex aromas lead you into one of the finest food wines you will encounter this year.

The 2019 Moon Duck from KitFox Vineyards' One-Time Spaceman will make many of you smile from ear to ear and is one of the go-to red blends for many of our club members. The wine is always a blend of Grenache, Syrah, and Mourvedre...with a lil extra sumpin'. You've had Moon Duck with Tempranillo. You've had Moon Duck with Petite Sirah. 2019 brings us Moon Duck with...Lagrein! Those of you who have been with us for a few years will remember the Arbios Lagrein – a gorgeous grape from the Alto Adige/ Südtirol region. So unique, the flavors that this brings to the Spaceman will certainly take you to a galaxy far, far away.

For those of you that belong to the Pink and Whites Club or have selected a red and white wine, we're sure you'll enjoy what we've chosen for you as well. Both the Sparkling Cava Rose and the Sauvignon Blanc are tasting room favorites.
