2017 Tempranillo

Bokisch Vineyards, Lodi

Varietal: 100% Tempranillo

Acidity: 5.7 g/l

pH: 3.87

Residual Sugar: Dry

Alcohol: 14.4%

Vineyard & Flavor

A small block from this Tempranillo vineyard delivers exceptional varietal character. Rich exotic aromas fill the senses with layers of espresso, dark chocolate, and blackberries. Dry cured black olives on the finish enhanced by French & American Oak.

Winemaking

Harvest: September 10, 2017

Bottled: July 20, 2021

Cases: 86

Fermentation is completed within two weeks in tank with twice daily pump overs. The cooling jackets around the tank provides a cooler fermentation to enhance the varietal character. On completion the wine was racked and Malo-Lactic or secondary fermentation is allowed to complete before barreling down.
